Lakewood Civic Auditorium | 14100 Franklin Blvd., Lakewood

This event is free and open to the public. To RSVP, please visit facinghistory.org/communityconversations or call 216-321-9220.

Student groups are encouraged to apply. Please RSVP for your student group online and we will let you know about availability. Priority will be given to teachers in the Facing History network.

Join us for a Community Conversation with Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist and author Sonia Nazario. She has written about social issues for more than two decades, most recently for the Los Angeles Times. Her astonishing bestseller Enrique's Journey chronicles her reporting on a Honduran boy's epic journey to the United States in order to find his mother.

By revealing the perils thousands of immigrants face each year as they attempt to reunite with their families, Enrique's Journey puts a personal face on one of the most challenging and divisive issues of our time. Told through a reporter's eye, the book offers perspectives that fall on both sides of the national dialogue on immigration.
